All Eyes Are Being Centered Upon City of Montreal.

Liner From Europe Bearing Delegates Equipped With Altars.

DUKE OF NORFOLK COMING

The great Catholic event of the year is drawing rapidly nearer, and because America is to be the scene of the various functions the eyes of the Catholic world are turned on the Western hemisphere. The World's Eucharistic Congress will be held at Montreal, Canada, September 6-11 inclusive. All arrangements have been completed, and the clergy and laity of Canada have united in preparing to receive visiting brethren.

The Executive Committee in Montreal estimates the attendance at upward of 200,000, and provision is being made for the accommodation in religious institutions of prelates, priests and the laity unable to find suitable lodgings. His Eminence Cardinal Vannutelli, of Rome, will be present as the special Legate of Pope Pius X. Other Cardinals who will be in attendance at the Eucharistic Congress are Cardinal Logue, of Ireland, and Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore. Besides there will be many prominent Archbishops and Bishops present, among them Archbishops Bourne, of England; Farley, of New York; Ireland, of St. Paul; Glennon, of St. Louis; O'Connell, of Boston; Bishop Neelan, of Covington; Bishop Neelan, of Namur; Bishop Touchet, of Orleans; Bishops McDonnell and Mundelein, of Brooklyn; O'Connor, of Newark, and Cusack, of New York. The Duke of Norfolk, of England, a staunch Catholic, and a son of one of the oldest aristocratic families in Great Britain, has also promised to attend.

On the Empress of Ireland, sailing from Liverpool on August 28 for New York, will be the Papal Legate, the Right Rev. Monsignor Giovanni D'Ercole, forty-five Bishops, about 200 priests and a score of nobles of Spain, Austria, Germany and England. A more altars will be erected in larger compartments of the ship for the celebration of daily Mass. The lay organization to take part in the Catholic Eucharistic Congress is the Eucharistic Club which will act as of honor to the Sacred Host, and will be carried in a monstrance on a table draped with public honor. On the evening, September 6, the legate will be received by the Right Rev. Monsignor Vannutelli at St. James' Cathedral. The following evening Cardinal Vannutelli will tender a civic reception. The Congress will open with a mid-mass in the Church of Notre Dame in the first hours of Thursday, September 8. On the same day there will be a solemn service in St. James' Cathedral and a celebration in Notre Dame in the evening. On the morning of September 9, there will be an open air service in Manceur Square, in French and English. The Papal Legate will hold a public reception. The following day there will be a pontifical Mass in St. Patrick's church and a meeting in Notre Dame in the evening. Sunday morning, September 11, Cardinal Vannutelli will be the celebrant of a solemn pontifical mass in the Cathedral. The procession of the Eucharist will be from the church of Notre Dame in the afternoon.

REUNION.

Catholic Knights to Have Big Day at Fontaine Ferry.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America was held at Mary's Hall on Friday night of last week, with a fair attendance of delegates. President Eugene McHugh was in the chair and called reports from all the committees, which were satisfactory. Major J. Michael Reichert and Newton G. Rogers were present and in addresses were earnest and eloquent stirring the delegates to action that must be good fruit. Chairman John Aida told those present that the membership Committee would soon inaugurate a campaign that would cease until each of the seventeen parishes in the Falls Cities had been reached and the membership substantially increased.

The Entertainment Committee was requested to prepare for the annual festival of the Catholic Knights at Fontaine Ferry Park the latter part of next month, for which there will be a special programme of amusements. This is an occasion that will be greatly anticipated and the season's best gatherings. Chairman Meehan and the degree team are now ready and will soon be doing effective work for the order at large. There was regret at the absence of Col. Gus Kane, who has been ill, but the reports from the Uniform Rank were very encouraging.

HUSTLING.

Mackin Council Active in Affairs of Public Interest.

The business of Mackin Council shows the interest that society is taking in a variety of public affairs. With President Kenney occupying the chair there was a hustling and an unusual amount of business transacted. Secretary Link announced the recovery of H. Everslage, but his place on the sick list was taken by Seb. Dittmeier. Will Burke reported that satisfactory progress was being made for the lawn fete, and that already there were seven contestants for the trip to the games of the world's baseball championship. He also announced that the opera committee would be ready to report in full next Monday.

By unanimous vote Mackin decided in favor of the banquet and entertainment to be given in honor of Bishop O'Donoghue the latter part of this month, and also favored the playground advocated for the children on Twenty-sixth street. If the Park Board takes up this work the council will contribute $100. Encouraging reports were received from the committees having charge of the Niagara Falls trip and the sunset excursion on July 30, in both of which there is a growing interest. The programme of the proceedings and entertainment for the Grand Council at Bellevue was made known, and it is probable that a number of members will accompany Mackin's delegates.

FIRST MASS.

Young Priest Who Was Ordained Yesterday Morning.

The first mass celebrated after the ordination of a priest is an event of more than ordinary interest in any parish, as will be witnessed tomorrow morning at St. Vincent de Paul's church, Shelby and Oak streets. Yesterday morning at St. Mary Magdalene's the Rev. Secondo Mensa was ordained to the holy priesthood by the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, Bishop of Louisville. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock Father Mensa will celebrate his first holy mass at St. Vincent de Paul's church, for which great preparation has been made, and it is needless to say that there will be a great gathering to receive his blessing. The Rev. Dominic Barthel, O. S. B., will act as deacon of the mass, assisted by the Rev. Patrick M. Monaghan as subdeacon. Rev. A. J. Thome, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's, will be the assistant priest and will preach the sermon, which will be worth going a long way to hear. The ladies of the Altar Society have left nothing undone to beautify the sanctuary, and the choir has prepared a special musical programme for this occasion.

BIG BAZAR

For the Sisters of Mercy Is Attracting Great Interest.

Leading Catholic men and women of every parish in the city are taking a deep interest in the bazar that is to be given for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy for four days beginning October 18. The Very Rev. Father Cronin, V. G., who has presided at the general meetings, has announced the following committees: Executive—Dr. Peter S. Ganz, Chairman; J. B. Ohlischlager, Secretary; Al Smith, Treasurer; J. C. Kirchdorfer, E. W. Berkley and Thomas Tarry. Arrangements—James B. Kelly, Floor—Jacob Hubbuch, Jr., Chairman.

Doll Booth—Mrs. Fred Knobbe. Refreshments—Miss B. Small. Linen Booth—Mrs. Thomas Keenan. County Store—Mrs. P. S. Ganz. Novelties and Candy Booth—Mrs. H. J. Buschmeyer.

The ladies will serve both dinner and supper on each of the four days. Among the prizes donated thus far are a piano, a $200 sideboard, a gold watch and a prize of $50 donated by the Rev. Father Patrick Walsh. Weekly meetings of the general and subordinate committees will be held from now until October.

RETREAT AT NAZARETH.

The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, who have been on their annual retreat at the mother house at Nazareth all week, will bring the exercises to a close tomorrow. The retreat, which began last Sunday, has been conducted by the Rev. Father Mark, C. P. Next week the Sisters will hold an important election.

CLIFF HAVEN.

The third-week at Cliff Haven was marked by intellectual offerings of the highest order. The course in education by the professors of the Catholic University, the round table talks, the evening song recitals, the Sunday evening family gathering and the lectures constitute a delightful programme, all of which portend great results for the Summer Catholic School.

REDMOND

Succeeds in Getting Large Sums For Aid of the Irish Poor.

British Leaders Are Now Confident They See Peace Ahead.

All Sides Now Expect Conference to Result in an Agreement.

HOME RULE AGAIN THE ISSUE

T. P. O'Connor, M. P., who will soon visit this county with Chairman Redmond and the envoys of the Irish Parliamentary party, cables the American press that the situation is greatly changed in the House of Commons and the whole political world. John Redmond's success in getting the Ministers to have November sittings and to postpone the final stages of the budget till then has produced equal delight and appeasement in Liberal and Irish circles. The Liberals are pleased because the postponement of the budget leaves the fate of the Government entirely in the hands of the House of Commons and thus prevents any chance of any such compromise by the Liberal negotiators as would imperil the Liberal principles. Hence that dangerous spirit of misgiving and revolt which threatened open rupture between the Ministry and its supporters has been exorcised and the whole political temper again is tranquil and even cheerful so far as the Liberal and Irish ranks are concerned.

Another curious sign of the times is the feeling among the more rational Conservatives that the conference, if it means a compromise on the constitutional question of the Lords' veto, may also mean a compromise on the Irish question. Evidently everybody feels the solution of the Irish question can not be much longer delayed. This feeling is aided greatly by the spectacle of the Irish party controlling all English politics at this moment. It was the Irish party which forced Premier Asquith and the Cabinet into the announcement of the demand of guarantees from the late King. It was the Irish party that passed the budget and forced it down the throats of the House of Lords, and it was the Irish party which forced the November sitting. The Tories are thus driven to contemplate the desirability of removal from the Imperial Parliament of so disturbing an element. Another factor is the well known opinion of the present King that the local questions should no longer occupy so much of the time and attention of the Imperial Parliament, and that a system of home rule all around should leave the Imperial Parliament to deal solely with the Imperial affairs. Ulster and the Orangemen are the only obstacle left to a settlement between the two parties on the home rule question.

John Redmond scored another big victory last week. Lloyd-George, though he is hard pressed for money and though he failed to get $4,000,000 from the city of London at 3 per cent., has agreed to lend another million to Ireland for laborers' cottages at 2½ per cent. This new victory has provoked the Tory members of the rural constituency in England to explain that the Irish party is the most powerful factor in getting anything done in the present Parliament. In concluding, Mr. O'Connor declares that Lloyd-George has his critics and some of these are among his best friends and most ardent admirers. In his case the "suspensions" are due to his merits rather than to his demerits. He is generous of hand, impulsive, desirous to please—in short, a Celt—and the terror in his case is his eagerness for a settlement that may give away more than the Liberal or Irish party could well stand. He does not think that anybody who knows him well believes that Lloyd-George would surrender anything that would stand for home rule. He is too good a Nationalist for that. And he could not betray home rule without betraying Welsh disestablishment, and that is unthinkable. The peril that Lloyd-George has to confront is some compromise on the Lords question which would give them more power than the Liberals are disposed to allow.

These are the reasons why the conference will probably end in rupture. Neither side has anything to give or to surrender that O'Connor can see.

PIUS' GIFT.

Four Bells For New Campanile Are Dedicated.

Appropos of the near completion of the new Campanile of St. Mark's an interesting ceremony was held in Venice last week in front of the Porta della Carta of the Ducal Palace, when the four bells which are to be placed in the Campanile were dedicated. These bells are a present from the Holy Father Pope Pius X., and after the conclusion of the ceremony in question the Mayor of Venice, Count Grimani, sent His Holiness the following telegram:

"On this day, dear alike to your Holiness' heart and to ours, the solemn dedication of the bells which shall spread their voices from the new tower of St. Mark's being finished, Venice through me expresses to Your Holiness its gratitude for your magnificent gift."

The ceremony, which was partly religious and partly civic, followed the traditional exercises on similar occasions, with altar, mass and incense. A great number of notables was present at the ceremonies.

HURT BY FALL.

Joseph Hubbuch, Sr., the well known Market street wall paper dealer, had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday morning. When coming up town Mr. Hubbuch fell from a street car into an excavation near Twenty-second and Market, sustaining painful bruises and a severe shock. He was rescued from his position and taken to his store, where he soon recovered from the effects of his mishap.

KENTUCKY

Will Be Represented by Able Men at Big Convention at Portland.

Grandest Gathering of Hibernians Oregon Has Ever Known.

The South Ought to Have Representation on National Board.

FEW LAW CHANGES EXPECTED

State President George J. Butler and County President Patrick J. Welsh left Louisville on Tuesday for Portland, Ore., where the biennial national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians is scheduled to begin next Monday. County President Welsh was accompanied by his wife, John Kelly and wife, of the Louisville Elevator Company, journeyed to Portland with the Hibernian delegates.

Messrs Butler and Welsh chose the long or Northern route to Portland, but will return by the Southern route. The only stop was made at Chicago where the Louisville party spent half a day. From Chicago the party went to Portland by way of St. Paul, Vancouver, B. C., and Seattle. They expect to arrive in Portland today. After the convention the Louisville intendants will return home by way of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Colorado Springs, Denver, Salt Lake City, Kansas City and St. Louis. The trip will consume from three to four weeks.

Before leaving Louisville State President Butler stated that his sole aim as a delegate to the national convention would be for the general good of the order and the promotion of a better organization in the South. County President Welsh endorsed the sentiments expressed by the State President, but added that he would use his utmost endeavor to see that the South was represented on the National Board. It is expected that many important matters will be discussed at the National convention.

Both State and County Presidents will have interesting reports to make to the Kentucky State convention in September. Ashland, Ky., will be fully prepared to take care of all the delegates and their friends. Thomas Howard, of Ashland, is Chairman of the committee that is making arrangements for the entertainment of all the delegates and visitors. State President Butler has information that Bishop C. P. Maes, of Covington, will open the convention at Ashland with prayer. He will also celebrate the mass and preach the sermon at the religious exercises prior to the convention. Rev. Father Coffey, of Ironton, Ohio, will attend the banquet of Hibernians at the State convention.

Many changes in existing laws will be proposed at the National convention to be held in Portland, next week. One of great importance to Kentucky Hibernians provides for a more thorough organization of the order in the South. Of course the Southern States are not getting even a fair share of Irish immigrants, most of them are either stopping in the New England and Central Eastern States, while the majority is seeking fairer pastures in the golden Northwest.

The impression prevails that many changes in the National laws will be presented, but the delegates are all true and tried as well as conservative men. Take the Kentucky representatives, State President Butler and County President Welsh, for instance. Mr. Butler has held every position of honor in his division, county and State, and has also been honored in the past with election on the National Board. County President Welsh has been a Hibernian since his early manhood. He has been a worker in the ranks, as a committeeman and as an officer. He has also made good as a County President. The interests of Kentucky Hibernians will be safe in the hands of these two gentlemen. Every Hibernian in Kentucky wishes them a prosperous voyage to Portland and a safe and happy journey home.

FRIENDS BOOM ROBERT BURKE.

Robert T. Burke, Grand President of the Y. M. I., Kentucky jurisdiction, has made a faithful member of the order and an energetic and painstaking official, whether as President of Mackin Council or in the more exalted office. His friends are now urging his candidacy as delegate to the Supreme convention which is to be held in San Francisco in September. Mr. Burke is modest about announcing his candidacy, but there is little doubt that he would accept the honor if it were conferred upon him. Surely he will reflect credit upon the jurisdiction and the order if he is chosen.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

John A. Kennedy, born in Jeffersonville thirty-six years ago and of late years one of the most popular employees of the American Car and Foundry Company in that city, was called into eternal rest on Friday last week. He was active in the work of St. Augustine's church and Catholic society affairs, having been specially honored by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, of which he was a recognized leader. Though ill for about six weeks the news of Mr. Kennedy's death came as a shock in all parts of the city. Surviving him are a brother and sister, Richard Kennedy and Mrs. Michael Kinney, both of Jeffersonville. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Father O'Connell on Monday morning, the church being filled with mourning friends and relatives.

YOUNG MEN

Elevated to Dignity of the Priesthood by Bishop O'Donoghue.

Two young men were ordained to the priesthood by the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue in his private chapel yesterday morning. The young levites are the Rev. Fathers Secondo Joseph Mensa and Patrick Monaghan. Both belong to this diocese and will be assigned to charges at an early date.

Father Mensa received minor orders on Tuesday, was raised to the subdeaconate on Wednesday, the deaconate on Thursday and together with the Rev. Monaghan, who was already a deacon, was elevated to the priesthood yesterday. Father Monaghan will celebrate his first mass at St. Patrick's church at 8 o'clock this morning. The Very Rev. Father Cronin, V. G., will be his assistant priest. Father Monaghan's family resides in Central City and he will celebrate his first high mass there on Sunday, July 24.

Rev. Father Mensa is an Italian, but both he and Father Monaghan were educated for this diocese.

WEIGHTY WORDS

Proselytism as Viewed by an Eminent Prelate.

Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, speaking recently upon proselytism, said in part:

"The one who would, for instance, offer with one hand the sandwich to the dependent child, and with the other put into his pocket an anti-pope tract, is not a charity worker, but a downright criminal. And should be punished by any decent code for the crime of soul snatching. We look with horror on the people who go to the cemetery by night, and take therefrom the bodies of our friends who are sleeping.

"To my mind, it is more criminal to endeavor to rob the little children of their faith, and to snatch from them that which is their soul's life, and which, according to the Christian standard at least, is worth much more than their bodies.

"In this matter I am pleading for the integrity and the rights of all the churches and faiths; and we should be together in saving the children from the system which by its very nature must exploit secularism and unbelief at the expense of revealed religion and definite creed.

"There is a feeling in the minds of some that the separation of Church and State means a necessary hostility between them. Why this feeling should exist I know not, except it be the outcome of prejudice or ignorance of the spirit of the Constitution."

DAY'S OUTING

With Varied Amusements Is Planned For St. Michael's.

A picnic for the benefit of St. Michael's church will be given at St. Michael's Grove, of South Sixth street interurban line, next Wednesday. The members of the parish are lending their efforts to aid in making Father Martin O'Connor in making the outing a success. Cars for the picnic grounds will leave the interurban station, Jefferson street, between Third and Fourth, every half-hour, beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning.

A feature of the day will be a baseball game between the Pleasure Ridge Farmers and St. Michael's Shamrocks. The game will be called at 10:30 o'clock. Besides there will be a baby show. All children under twelve years are eligible to entry. The prize winner will receive $5, but each youngster entered will receive something. The ladies of the parish will furnish dinner and supper at reasonable prices. There will be an abundance of refreshments.

The following committee heads have been named: John C. Schildt, General Chairman; John J. Barry, music; Young Ladies' Sodality, refreshments; Sacred Heart Sodality, county store; J. E. Timmons, soft drinks; Charles Beadles, lights; John C. Schildt, Ben Sandmann, wheel of fortune; Arthur Erasime, baseball; Councilman T. J. Garvey, general arrangements.

WANT OWN HOME.

Following the example of Mackin and Trinity Councils of this city, a proposition has been submitted and committees appointed to formulate plans for the erection of a handsome club house for Chickasaw Council at Memphis. This is the largest project ever attempted by the Y. M. I. of Tennessee, and the proceedings will be very careful and thorough. It is hoped that within a short time the plans will be well under way. The committee in charge is determined to attain the end in view, and have promised to stick to the difficult task until the final goal is reached.

DUBLIN

Has Many Famed Towns and Rivers Within Its Confines.

Capital City of Ireland Has Given Famous Men to the World.

Picturesque Strands and Historic Ruins Are Found Everywhere.

TOWN OF THE BACK POOL

County Dublin has given many noted men to the world, and the majority of them are classed as Englishmen. For instance, "Edmund Burke is the greatest of English orators; Tom Moore is the greatest of English lyricists." Both were born in Dublin.

The county lies on the eastern shore of Ireland abutting the Irish sea. It is thirty-two miles long and sixteen and one-half wide and has an area of 354½ square miles. The population is about 400,000. The city, which gave its name to the county, got its own name from the river adjacent. The Liffey, near where the old city stood, formed a pool which was called Dubh-linn, which means a black pool, and the name is as applicable to the river now as in olden times. The more ancient name was Ath-clath, meaning the ford of the hurdles, on account of the old hurdle bridge by which the Liffey was crossed.

The county is skirted on the south by mountains; the rest of the county is level and is all in grass or cultivation. The coast is broken by numerous inlets. At Howth and Dalkey the shore is precipitous. In some parts the strand is beautiful. Velvet Strand, between Malahide and Howth, is one of the finest strands in Ireland. The two rocky peninsulas of Rush and Portlaine lie at the opposite sides of the inlet of Turvey. The promontory of Howth rises to the height of 560 feet, and presents a succession of splendid sea cliffs nearly the whole way round; and at Dalkey and Killiney is another series of fine cliffs terminating in Sorrento Point, opposite Dalkey Island. Many picturesque islands are off the coast of Dublin, and the Little Island of Dalkey contains a Martello tower and also a very ancient church ruin.

Dublin county is watered by numerous streams and rivers. The Liffey enters at Leixlip, and from thence to its mouth is about twelve miles. Other rivers in Dublin county are the Dodder, the Tolka, Broad Meadow Water, the Delvin and the Bray.

Dublin is the principal city in Ireland and is called the capital of the country. It has a population of 250,000, but with its suburbs the number is about 300,000. Kings-town, on the south side of Dublin bay, is the mail packet station between Ireland and England. It is also the chief station for steamers plying between Holyhead and Liverpool. Other towns in Dublin that are famous in Irish history are Chapelizod, Lncan, the home of the Sarsfields, Kilmalnam, Clonsilla, Terenure, Dundrum and Bray. Lead and silver are both found in Dublin, but the mines have never been worked extensively.

Among the Louisville people who are natives of Dublin are Mrs. Mary Ann Nichols Burke, of South Sixth street, and Patrick Daniel, a printer in the composing room of the Louisville Times.

Bishop O'Donoghue to Be Feted by Local Y. M. I. Councils.

The Chaplains of Mackin and Trinity Councils will also be guests of honor. Grand President Robert T. Burke has been selected as toastmaster, but the speakers have not been decided upon.

McConnell at St. Stephen's church, Owensboro. After solemn high mass at St. Stephen's in the morning, Father McConnell entertained the local and visiting clergy with a banquet in the afternoon. In the evening he received the laity at his pastoral residence. Many non-Catholics called to wish him many more years in the ministry.

LADY TOURISTS.

Misses Beesle Hannan, Mollie Collins, Margaret Keenan, Carrie Buett, Margaret and Winifred Flaherty are members of a party of tourists that will sail from New York for Europe today. They are all engaged in the dressmaking or millinery business in Louisville and have gone abroad to do their fall buying. Incidentally they will visit the Tyrol, see the Passion Play at Oberammergau, take in parts of Switzerland and Italy and with return by way of Paris.

ENJOYS HIMSELF.

Alderman James M. Treasy is enjoying a trip on the continent of Europe. In Paris he met William J. Baird and Attorney Dave Sachs. Mr. Treasy will visit Oberammergau to witness the Passion Play. En route home he will have a jaunt through Ireland.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT.

Con Sullivan, formerly City Engineer of Shelbyville, is dangerously ill at his home there as a result of stepping on a rusty nail. Lockjaw has developed and his family and friends are very apprehensive. Mr. Sullivan stands high in the Shelby county community and all hope for his speedy recovery.

DELIGHTFUL

Is the Story of Col. Stone's Brief Tour of Ireland.

Col. Henry L. Stone, Chief Attorney for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, is always interesting. To Irishmen he becomes particularly interesting when he describes his last year's tour of Ireland. His attempt at spelling Irish geographical names would be unpardonable were he not a lawyer, and lawyers know so much about everything else, that to them orthography is one of the lost arts.

His worst offense in this line is "Muck Rose" Abbey for Muckross. But Col. Stone is just as happy. To an unsophisticated Kentuckian that walks in a "gyahden" and smokes a "segah" Muck Rose and Muckcross sound much alike.

After describing the beauties of Ireland, that is the few that he saw, Col. Stone wonders what is the matter with Ireland. He does not undertake to answer the question himself, but quotes an article from a popular magazine as follows: "The trouble is burdensome taxation. When the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was formed, 110 years ago, with one Parliament, England assumed equal responsibility with Ireland for the Irish national debt of a few million pounds and bestowed upon Ireland the privilege of equal responsibility with England for her national debt of a few hundred million pounds. Today each Englishman pays less in taxation than before the union with Ireland, while each Irishman pays four and a half times as much. The British Government raises in Ireland a revenue of almost £10,000,000. This is £4,000,000 greater than the revenue of Norway, £5,000,000 more than the revenue of Denmark, double the revenue of Switzerland and three one-half times the revenue of Greece. No wonder that Dean Swift exclaimed when he heard an English Duchess praise the salubrious climate in Ireland: 'Sh! madam. Don't say a word about it in England or they'll tax it.' A second trouble with Ireland is the railways. Instead of developing the resources of the country in order to insure future revenues, they hamper its development by charging prohibitive rates. A recent French investigator found that while eggs could be imported into London from Normandy at twenty-one shillings per ton, and from Denmark at thirty-five, the British steppich in Tipperary paid ninety-four. That is Irish railway policy. The third injury to Ireland is due to emigration. The population has dwindled from 9,000,000 in 1847 to less than 4,500,000. Fifty thousand of the strongest and ablest young people of the country are emigrating annually. Ninety-five per cent. of them come to this country. And yet Ireland is believed by competent authorities to be capable of sustaining 20,000,000 people in comfort and plenty."

Col. Stone does not say that he indorses this explanation, but he leaves one to infer that he does. He need not have gone so far away from home for the explanation. There are hundreds of Irishmen in Louisville that could have told him the same thing.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services over the remains of Thomas Jordan, Sr., were held Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church and were largely attended. Mr. Jordan was a well known molder and was held in high esteem in the West End, where he lived with his family for many years. Besides his wife he leaves four daughter and two sons.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Carroll, for many years a highly esteemed resident of this city, took place Monday morning from the Cathedral. Mrs. Carroll some time ago fell and broke her hip, and this hastened her death. She was a native of Ireland, but since girlhood had lived in Louisville. Several sons and daughters survive her.

Frank P. Andriot, a well known painter of the West End, died at his home, 365 North Twenty-seventh street, early Wednesday morning. The deceased was born in Louisville thirty-two years ago. A wife and four children survive him. The funeral took place from St. Cecilia's church yesterday morning and was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Sullivan died at the home of her brother, Owen Sullivan, 1252 Cherokee road, early Wednesday morning. The deceased was sixty-five years old and was the widow of Anthony Sullivan, a river pilot, who died early in the '70s. One son, V. G. Sullivan, survives her. The funeral took place from the Cathedral yesterday morning. The deceased was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

Mrs. Matilda Schoene, aged twenty-seven, beloved wife of William Schoene, Jr., the concrete contractor, died Tuesday morning after a short illness of tuberculosis, and the sad news came as a shock to her wide circle of friends. Besides her husband she leaves one child and three brothers and one sister. The funeral took place Thursday from St. Philip Neri's Rev. Father Ackerman being the celebrant of the solemn mass of requiem.

STS. MARY AND ELIZABETH.

A lawn fete for the benefit of Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital will be given on the hospital grounds, Twelfth and Magnolia avenue, and August 30 and 31. Tickets are being sold for ten cents. A fine leather couch is offered as a prize. A good, square supper will be served for fifteen cents.

Gov. Willson has appointed Judge C. R. McDowell, of Danville, to succeed himself as Democratic Election Commissioner. The appointment meets general approval, because Judge McDowell is highly regarded by all classes irrespective of politics.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 3 will meet Monday night at which time arrangements will be made for representation at the State convention.

Division 1 will meet in regular session next Tuesday night. Reports on the proposed outing are expected and a full attendance is desired.

A large crowd attended the meeting of Division 2 last night. Quite a lot of detail was threshed out, and a more extended notice will be given next week.

The auxiliaries of Tipton and Kokomo, Ind., are arranging for a big joint initiation upon the return of the State officers from the national convention.

The National conventional will assemble at Portland, Ore., on Monday, and the Kentucky Irish American will have interesting reports from the moment the flag falls.

The County Board with the assistance of the Ladies' Auxiliary ought to make a hit at Phoenix Hill Park on July 25. The ladies engaged in the ticket selling contests are all hustlers.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet next Wednesday evening and hear encouraging reports from various committees. The report from the joint outing with Division 4 will be particularly gratifying.

Division 4 was converted into a "Lodge of Sorrow" Monday night on account of the death of William Chawk. Only the natural father of William, Jr., and Dr. John T. Chawk, he had adopted every member of Division 4 as his sons.

Pennsylvania delegates to the national convention will ask all who are opposed to a third term for President Cummins to rally to the standard of Joseph McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, who possesses every qualification for the high office.

Officers and delegates to Portland were given a hearty welcome when they reached Minneapolis. Following a banquet at the West Hotel they were tendered a public reception at the Elks' Hall, to which all members of the order and auxiliary had been invited.

Eastern delegates to the national convention arrived in St. Paul Sunday morning and were met by National Vice President Regan and the county officers. The visitors were taken on a sight-seeing tour of the city in automobiles and then entertained at the Hibernian halls by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

GROCERS' OUTING.

The Retail Grocers' Association
will give its second annual outing at Fontaine Ferry Park next Wednesday. All the usual attractions will be on hand. The grocers will have the greatest country store ever seen in Louisville, and will offer great bargains. The $165 gold Toledo computing scale, which will be one of the prizes, is now displayed in Johnson & Rapier's window, Fourth and Jefferson streets.

DON'T WAIT.

If you are a graduate and intend to enter the industrial field for a livelihood, plunge into the surf before you are cramped with a tired feeling. The sooner a young man or a young woman begins to assist their parents in maintaining the household, the better for them and for the social fabric.

CHURCH LAWN FETE.

The Rev. Father Assent and the people of St. Elizabeth's congregation announce a lawn fete on the church grounds on Burnett avenue for the last week in August. His flock is enthusiastic and have planned numerous delightful attractions
for the occasion.

DR. FALISI HERE.

Dr. Vincent Falisi, of Little Rock, Ark., is spending a vacation of ten days in Louisville. While the greater part of his time is taken up with his patients, he is never averse to renewing old acquaintances. Dr. Falisi is making good in Arkansas.

FIRE CHIEFS RETURN.

Capt. Tom Mannix, of the No. 20
Engine Company, and Capt. Pat Sheehan, of the No. 11 Engine Company, are back on duty after a brief vacation. Part of the time they spent inspecting the fire department in Cincinnati.

SIMPLE COLD REMEDY.

Have a drug mix a small quantity of menthol into five cents' worth of white vaseline; apply a bit into each nostril, one at a time. Close the mouth and the free nostril lightly. Breathe deeply until the effect is felt through the head and throat; repeat in a few moments through the other nostril. Relief will come at once.

THERE ARE OTHERS.

"Father, what is an empty title?"
"Well, an empty title is your mother's way of calling me the head of the house."

IMPORTANCE OF DEEP BREATH- ING.

Nervousness can be cured by forming the habit of breathing deep and long, and one medical authority prescribes it in his schedules for nervous women. All singers are invariably high-chested and free from colds or chronic coughing spells. It is because they have learned to breathe from the waist instead of the top of the lungs, and the majority of people do.
To breathe deeply is to stimulate the heart and circulation. It means a full, high chest and broad shoulders.
It means practical immunity from the dangers incurred by exposure. It means a good carriage and well-poised head. And best of all, it means perfect physical health.

Boorbell started ringing,
Filled us with dismay;
Father got his collar
And put his wife away.
Mother in a hurry
Straightened up the room,
Aunt Jane looked it over,
And swept it with the broom.
Sister got some powder,
And put it on her nose,
Told me she would cuff me
Unless I brushed my clothes.
There we all sat smiling,
Neat as we could be,
Everything all ready,
To pour a cup of tea.
Then the door was opened—

LOURDES.

Tribute Which an Anglican Minister Has Just Offered.

Writing from London, a correspondent of the Buffalo Catholic Union and Times has this pleasing reference to the world-famed Catholic shrine:
"That the influence of Lourdes is widespread no devout client of our lady ever doubts, but it is refreshing to hear the tribute which an Anglican minister has just offered in a distinctly bigoted paper. This gentleman, in the course of a walking tour through the Pyrenees, came to the famous shrine. He was coldly desirous of investigating for himself the devotion practised there, which he considered was in modern parlance
'a paying business.' What he found he describes with awe-struck reverence. The simple devotion, the touching faith, the marvellous spirit of prayer which brooded over the place 'so blessed by earth and heaven,' caused him to fall upon his knees in the midst of the crowds of great and humble folk and pour out his own supplications together with theirs. Moreover he proclaims that money does not enter into the scheme of things at Lourdes, which is primitive in its perfect faith."

LATEST IN STYLES.

The durable pongees are more popular than ever.

Underwear of cotton crepe is a new fad that will be popular.

All white gloves are worn less than they have been for some time.

The newest tailored shirtwaists are made with the yoke in the back.

Ribbon embroidered is revived.
Plain colored parasols are most liked.

The one seam small bishop sleeve
is the favorite for the tailored shirtwaist.

Striped chiffon, looking quite like trucks, will make an effective yoking
for the more elaborate gowns.

Facings of hats may be of velvet or of silk and, while black is most used, colors may be used also.

A belt with a slender buckle gives a longer waist; a white belt should be worn with a white waist unless one is long waisted.

Suede gloves are more worn than a glace kid, probably because the fit is much better and the hand looks smaller in them.

One of the smartest fixings for the shirtwaist is the Persian trimmed silk Ascot or bow. There is no end to the schemes to which it lends itself.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

The outing of Cedar Point, on Lake Erie, which opens tomorrow and closes July 24, will be attended by thousands of Knights from Ohio and the adjoining States.

The three degrees were conferred upon a class of fifty at Leadville, Col., on July 3. Five hundred ladies and gentlemen sat down to the banquet
that followed in the evening.

The Knights of Peoria, Ill., have invited Theodore Roosevelt to come to that city on Columbus day and deliver an address. The ex-President will make every possible effort to be there.

Colorado Springs Council will initiate another large class in October, and by this step establish a record over all other councils in Colorado by initiating two classes
in one year.

Denver Knights are elated over winning the first prize for having the best float in the Independence Day parade. The float was skillfully arranged and portrayed "The Discovery of America," picturing Columbus and his brave sailors as they planted the cross on the shores of the new land.

PORTLAND VS. MERITS.

The Indianapolis Merits will be the opponents of the Portland ball club
at Portland Park tomorrow afternoon and the fans of the West End are sure of a close contest, as the Merits
have one of the strongest semi-pro fessional line-ups that play in the Falls Cities. Brown and Zinkhard will be the Hoosier battery, while Capt. Harry Lally will put Boardman and Brady to oppose them. Portland's easy victory over the union printers' team of Cincinnati has boosted their stock wonderfully, and the "typos" are willing to bet that Portland ranks second to none of the other semi-professional teams in this section.

LEADS THEM RIGHT.

A prominent Bishop, in an address
recently to the members of a Catholic society, said that he never knew any of the members of a Catholic family that subscribed continually for a Catholic paper to go astray, or to commit any crime to bring a blush to the face of their relatives or the community at large. In view of this assertion it surely ought to be worth while for our fathers and mothers to give more attention to the cause of the Catholic weekly paper.

AT FONTAINE FERRY.

Another all-star vaudeville bill will hold forth at Fontaine Ferry next week. Among the attractions will be the Exposition Four, mixing music and mirth; Swain's Cockatoos, a gorgeous flock of trained birds; Fred Hamill and his Bathing Beauties;
Cecile Francis & Co., in a little bit of everything; and Hilda Hawthorne,
the great female ventriloquist. Madge Caldwell will again fill the role of vocal soloist and Gregg's band will render many new and popular airs.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herron, who traveled from Wichita, Kan., to Jeffersonville to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coll, have returned home. Mrs. Coll is an aunt of Mr. Herron.

STILL TOURING IRELAND.

Advices from Ireland state that Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Callahan and little daughter, Miss Edith, continue to enjoy their tour of Ireland. They are expected to return to Louisville
some time next month.

ENJOYING VACATION.

Jailer John R. Pfanz left Monday for Martinsville, Ind., where he is spending his ten days' vacation. During his absence the duties of the office will be looked after by the Chief Deputy Jailer, Eugene Banford.

MEMORIAL TO FOUNDER.

The Georgetown University Alumni Association has agreed to raise a $15,000 memorial to Archbishop
John Carroll, founder of the college.

PUT UNDER BAN.

Football has been put under the ban by the faculty of Fordham University. Georgetown and Holy Cross, it is expected, will follow suit.

SMOOTHED FLANNELS.

Instead of ironing flannels, fold smoothly as if to iron and wring in rising water through the wringer, then hang out to dry, and they will look as smooth as if ironed. This saves time and no danger of scorching.

THE ICE BOX.

Never put food in the ice box until it becomes perfectly cold. If not allowed to cool the steam caused will permeate the chest and the contents will become strong and spoil in spite of all the ice in the refrigerator.

VEAL LOAF.

For every cupful of meat add a cupful of ground or grated bread crumbs when making veal loaf. The loaf will not be so solid and heavy, it will be less expensive, more wholesome and more delicious.

PREVENTS JARS BREAKING.

When canning fruit, if a silver tablespoon is placed in a glass jar
before pouring in the hot fruit, it will prevent the jar from breaking.
This also applies when it is desired
to put hot dessert in a cut glass dish.

WILL CHASE THEM.

When having trouble from cockroaches leave a few peellings of the cucumbers near their favorite haunts.

GERMAN BANKER

Enters Into Eternal Rest
and Is Mourned by Community.

Many Louisville people mourn the death of William H. Edinger, President of the German Insurance Bank and man of general affairs. He had been ill seven weeks, and while his death was not unexpected, the news of his death at his home, 223 East Chestnut street, on Tuesday, was received with general regret. The deceased was born of German parents at Marietta, Ohio, in 1844, but had lived in Louisville since infancy. He was in every sense of the word a self-made man. He began life as a farmer's boy. Then he carried newspapers and attended night school. Later he engaged in the grocery business. He was successful in all his ventures. In 1896 he was elected President of the German Insurance Bank and remained at the head of that institution until his death.

The deceased is survived by his wife and the following children: Walter Scott and Edwin R. Edinger, and Mrs. William V. Richter. Two brothers, Jacob Edinger, the wagon manufacturer, and Andrew Edinger, of the Edinger Flour Company, and one sister, Mrs. Sophia B. Barringer, also survive. Although a man, of strict dealings in business, the deceased gave much to charity, and for years was deeply interested in the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. Many sorrowing friends attended his funeral on Thursday afternoon.

ORPHAN BOYS

Will Find New Asylum at Old Preston
Park.

[Preston Park has been closed as a seminary and within the next four weeks will become the home of the orphan boys now domiciled at St. Thomas' Asylum in Nelson county. The young men studying for the priesthood in this diocese will pursue their studies in other diocesan seminaries until other arrangements are made. The students of theology and philosophy will attend St. Meinrad's Seminary in Indiana. Those not so far advanced will be sent to various colleges and seminaries.

The Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue has shown much forethought in these changes. The removal of the orphan boys to Louisville will be of benefit to the boys in many ways. If present plans work out successfully the diocese of Louisville will have the beginning of a first-class theological seminary within five years. Of course it will take years to develop it. Bishop O'Donoghue has the will, the zeal and the ability to carry out his aims; moreover he has the loyal support of his people. God willing, the diocese of Louisville will become once more the cradle of Catholicity in the West and South.

TRINITY COUNCIL

Ready For Annual Fete at Fern Grove
Tuesday.

Trinity Council's meeting last Monday evening was well attended, even though the weather was warm. A. G. Schneider, Chairman of the committee arranging for the excursion to Fern Grove next Tuesday, reported that the committee had things in nice shape. All indications are for a good crowd. Robert Kaltenbacher entertained the members with a story of his recent trip through the Northwest.

[Following the usual custom, Trinity Council will give its annual outdoor euchre and dance at Phoenix Hill Park during the latter part of August or early in September. Henry Dries is Chairman of the General Committee. Eugene J. Cooney reported that the two councils, Mackin and Trinity, would give a banquet in honor of the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue on Monday, July 25.

OUT FOR ALL DAY.

On Wednesday, August 3, St. Vincent de Paul's church will give an all-day picnic at Phoenix Hill Park, including euchre, lotto and many other amusements. The women of the parish will serve meals at noon and evening and refreshments of all kinds all day long. This picnic is to be given for the benefit of St. Vincent de Paul's new school building and merits a generous patronage from people in all parts of the city.

FOR WORTHY CAUSE.

The ladies of the congregation of St. Mary's of the Knobs church, Floyd county, Indiana, will give an ice cream festival on Sunday afternoon and evening, July 24, to defray the expense of painting the rectory, school building and Sisters' residence.

FATHER LEO GOING ABROAD.

The Very Rev. Leo Greulich, O. M. C., Provincial of his order in the United States and for ten years pastor of St. Anthony's church, will sail from New York for Europe on July 30, and expects to be abroad two months. Of course he will visit Rome first. Later he will traverse various parts of Germany.

BON VOYAGE.

Hon. Jeremiah H. Sullivan, of Richmond, Ky., sailed from New York on Wednesday. He will make an extended tour of Ireland, and expects to visit many important cities on the European continent during his three months' trip abroad.

MOTION PICTURES.

Visitors to the Casino, Princess and Columbia next week will see motion pictures never exhibited here before and from the world's best makers. With the electric fans cooling the atmosphere, those who would escape the heat and be well entertained will find nothing to compare with the visits made to either of these picture shows.

RIVERVIEW.

Another great vaudeville and more outdoor features than ever will draw crowds next week for Riverview Park, which grows in favor with the public and is conceded to be Nature's beauty spot on the Ohio river. The band concerts and vocal numbers have pleased thousands, and the next programme will be the best yet. The swimming pool attracts many who are interested in the Irish champion, and his high diving and fancy swimming have proven an interesting feature.

LOCAL INTEREST

Aroused by the Capture of a Notorious Negro Convict.

Local interest has been aroused in the capture of George Crawford, alias Withrow, a negro convict, who escaped from the Frankfort penitentiary eight years ago, and whose recapture was only effected last Saturday. On May 31, 1871, Crawford, who played the part of highwayman, killed Peter Garvey, a railroad watchman at Muldraugh's Hill. He was arrested, found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment.

During the regime of Gov. Bradley and during his absence from the State, Lieut. Gov. Worthington pardoned Crawford. Soon after he was convicted on the charge of house-breaking, and was serving his sentence when he made his escape in 1902. Peter Garvey, the man murdered by Crawford in 1871, was an uncle of Attorney Patrick T. Sullivan, Councilman T. J. Garvey and Dave Garvey, all now of Louisville. Although Crawford was recognized as a bad negro, he was defended in each of his trials by Attorney James Montgomery, a member of an old and respected Irish Catholic family in Kentucky. One of his brothers, Alex. Montgomery, served as Congressman, and another kinsman from Kentucky was Bishop of Sacramento, Cal.

SILVER JUBILEE

Eloquent Priest Is Remembered
by Holy Name Society.

The Rev. Father William R. Dunn, O. P., assistant pastor of St. Louis Bertrand church and Spiritual Director of the Holy Name Society, left for the East on Wednesday to celebrate his silver sacerdotal jubilee next Tuesday. Father Dunn was one of six young men ordained to the priesthood twenty-five years ago. Several of the class are dead. The survivors are to meet in the city in which they were ordained. It was at the last minute that the members of the Holy Name Society had word of the proposed trip of their Spiritual Director. They got busy and presented him with a purse before he left. Father Dunn is an eloquent Dominican, and his absence from St. Louis Bertrand's, even though temporary, is deplored.

DOUBLE-HEADER

Between the Colonels and Kansas City Tomorrow.

This afternoon's game with Milwaukee will end their series with the Colonels and the Kansas City Blues are here for four games opening with a double header tomorrow, and as the Blues have been going at a fast clip lately, being in the first division, some hard fought contests are in store for the fans. The large crowd of last Sunday will probably be eclipsed tomorrow, as the rejuvenated Colonels have inspired their followers with confidence, as they have proven lately that they may be beaten, but the other team is sure of a run for their money.

It was predicted in these columns two weeks ago that if Del Howard would make good, which fact is being proven more and more day by day. The playing of Magee, Doyle, Stanley and Flournoy is especially pleasing to the fans. Little Jimmy Doyle now being the popular favorite of the crowd, his hard, earnest work in the field and his steady hitting having won many friends among the rooters. The Colonels all in all now have a team of workers and no shirkers, and it is only a question of a short time when they will be out of the despondent cellar position.

PICNIC FOR SCHOOL.

[Phoenix Hill Park should be crowded on Wednesday, July 27, when the picnic for the benefit of St. Paul's school will be given. Pleasant features will be the euchre and lotto games, both afternoon and evening, and the grand chorus by 300 children. There will be a fine supper for the hungry, and also coffee, sandwiches and ice cream and cake galore. Father York hopes that this picnic will greatly reduce the debt resting upon the new school building.

CONDITION IMPROVING.

John Hallinan, who fell from a Bank street car last week, sustaining a dislocated shoulder and other severe injuries, is making favorable progress toward recovery at his home, 3520 West Main street. It is thought he will be out soon, though it may be several weeks before he can return to his duties.
